The primary focus of Ms. Holland's experience has been analyzing and consulting with corporations in designing and funding their executive benefit programs. Ms. Holland also works with clients in conducting audits of plans to determine areas in which cost efficiencies can be achieved.

Ms. Holland joined Clark Consulting in 1997 with experience in both administration and plan design.

Ms. Holland received her BBA in International Business from New Mexico State University, her MBA in Corporate Finance from the University of Dallas, and co-authored "Strategic Financing of Deferred Compensation: The Evolution of an Executive Benefits Program" published in the WorldatWork Journal in 2005.

Ms. Holland currently serves as Director of Communications Chair for Chicago Financial Women, and is a member of Women in Pensions and the Professional Women's Club of Chicago. She also volunteers with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Illinois.
